

Massachusetts
Probate
and Family Court

Welcome to the Probate and Family Court
Department of the Massachusetts Trial Court.

Many Probate and Family law matters involve complex and valuable legal rights. If possible, you should always speak with an attorney before filing any papers. Please ask court staff for the pamphlet "Looking for Legal Assistance?" which contains helpful information about obtaining legal advice and representation.

The information in this pamphlet is provided as a service of the court. It is not legal advice which can only be given to you by an attorney.

Financial Statement

(SHORT FORM)
Form and Instructions

Use these instructions ONLY if:

- H You are the Plaintiff, Defendant or Petitioner in a Divorce, Separate Support, Paternity, Modification or Contempt case or any other case involving alimony, child support or division of property;
and
- H Your gross yearly income (before taxes and other deductions) is less than $75,000.

- You must complete the Long Form Financial Statement if your gross yearly income is more than $75,000.
- If you work for yourself, you must also complete Schedule A.
- If you own any rental property, you must also complete Schedule B.

Additional forms are available at the Registry of Probate.

IMPORTANT

] The Financial Statement is one of the most important papers that you file with the Court. The judge will make important decisions based on the information that you write down.

] Fill out the form completely and truthfully. Your signature indicates that the information you provide is true to the best of your knowledge. Untrue statements can lead to criminal prosecution.

] Each person in your case must file a completed Financial Statement within 45 days after the Plaintiff delivers the Complaint to the Defendant and at all court hearings involving alimony, child support, division of property or any other financial matters.

For more information, ask at the Registry of Probate for copies of Uniform Probate Court Practice XXX and Supplemental Probate Court Rule 401.

Instructions for completing the FINANCIAL STATEMENT (Short Form)

Please print or type all information.

Do not fill in the sample form. Use the form provided by the court. Look at the sample on the next two pages to see where to put the required information. For example, put the information asked for in line ① of these instructions on the same line of the form provided by the court. Fill in every line. If you have nothing to put on a line, write in the word "NONE". If you need more space for the information in Sections 8, 10, or 11, you may attach additional sheets of paper instead of putting the information on the form. The staff at the Registry of Probate can give you a sample, completed Financial Statement.

- ① Your Name, etc. Fill in your name, address, age, occupation, etc. Fill in all the information. If you are not currently working, write "UNEMPLOYED" in the space where the form asks for "Employer".
- ② Gross Weekly Income from All Sources. Fill in all your gross income (before any deductions). You must use weekly amounts. List only your income, not the income of other people involved in the case. If you are paid monthly, divide your monthly income by 4.3. If you are paid every two weeks, divide your income from each paycheck by 2. If you are paid twice a month, divide your income from each paycheck by 2.15. In lines 2(c) through 2(k), circle those items that apply to you. Write "NONE" on any line for which you have no income. It is helpful if you bring to court your most recent pay stub. If you are self-employed, bring last year's tax return, including Schedule C and any other related forms.
- ③ Itemized Deductions from Gross Income. Fill in the deductions that appear on your paycheck. Use weekly amounts, dividing in the same way that you did for your income.
- ④ Adjusted Net Weekly Income. Subtract "Total Deductions" on line 3(f) from "Total Income" on line 2(l).
- ⑤ Other Deductions from Salary. Fill in any other amounts deducted from your wages.
- ⑥ Net Weekly Income. Subtract "Total Deductions" (line 5(e)) from "Adjusted Net Weekly Income" (line 4).
- ⑦ Gross Yearly Income from Prior Year. Fill in your total income from last year (before taxes or other deductions) and attach copies of last year's W-2 and 1099 form(s) showing your income.
- ⑧ Weekly Expenses. Fill in weekly amounts. Divide monthly amounts by 4.3 to get weekly amounts. Do NOT list expenses that you have listed as deductions from your pay in Section 3 or Section 5. Do include the weekly payments for any liabilities listed in Section 11. If someone else in your household pays some of the expenses, you should only write down the amount that you actually pay.
- ⑨ Counsel Fees. Write in the amounts that you have paid and that you expect to pay to an attorney. If you have an attorney, he or she can help you complete this section.
- ⑩ Assets. Fill in the present value of real estate, retirement plans, life insurance, bank accounts, pensions, motor vehicles, stocks and bonds and any other items of value you own. For savings, checking, money market accounts and certificates of deposit, list the name of the bank and the account number. You should bring to court the most recent statements for checking, savings, retirement and other accounts.
- ⑪ Liabilities. List all of your debts on the chart. List the creditor, the kind of debt, when you first borrowed the money (or the date that you were ordered to pay the money) and the current amount due. If you make payments on a liability, write "see weekly expenses" under "Weekly Payment" and include the weekly amount in Section 8.
- ⑫ Total number of years you have paid into social security. Fill in the number of years you have contributed to social security since you began working.

N DO NOT FORGET TO SIGN and DATE the form. If you have a lawyer, he or she must complete the "Statement By Attorney" on the back of the form. File the original with the court. Keep one copy and mail a copy to the other person in your case. If the other person has a lawyer, mail the copy to the lawyer.

RULES ABOUT FILING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Each person who is involved in a Divorce, Separate Support, Paternity, Modification, Contempt or any other case involving alimony, child support or division of property must file a Financial Statement at various times during the case. A Financial Statement must be filed shortly after a case begins, at certain times when one person requests a Financial Statement from the other person, whenever you are in court on an issue involving child support, alimony or division of property and when you are in court for a pre-trial conference or at trial (including a hearing on an uncontested case).

People who represent themselves in the Probate and Family Court (called pro se litigants) are responsible for following the same court rules as are attorneys. On the front and back of this page are copies of Uniform Probate Court Practice XXX and Supplemental Probate Court Rule 401 which explain some of the rules about filing a Financial Statement.

These rules are current as of June, 2003. It is your responsibility to make sure that you have copies of the most recent rules when you file your case. If you need additional assistance, you should consult with an attorney or visit the Trial Court Law Libraries. More information about contacting an attorney or visiting the Law Libraries is available in the Self Help Center of the Trial Court website at www.state.ma.us/courts.

UNIFORM PROBATE COURT PRACTICE XXX. FILING OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

No complaint for divorce brought pursuant to G. L. c. 208, secs. 1, 1A or 1B, nor complaint for separate support under G.L. c. 209, nor complaint for any modification thereof shall be marked for a hearing unless a financial statement of each party is on file with the court.

This requirement may be waived:

- 1.) by the court, sua sponte;
- 2.) on the motion of either party asserting non-compliance with Supplemental Rule 401 by the other party which is accompanied by a request for sanctions pursuant to Dom. Rel. P. Rule 37, or
- 3.) on an affidavit asserting unavailability of the opposing party which precludes compliance with Rule 401 and this practice.

A previously filed financial statement shall be deemed acceptable for the purposes of this practice if a sworn statement is filed stating that there has been no change in the party's finances since the last statement was filed.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROBATE COURT RULE 401
FINANCIAL STATEMENT

- (a) Except as otherwise ordered by the court, each party to a divorce or separate support action or any other action where financial relief is requested, shall file with the court and shall deliver to the other party within 45 days from the date of the service of the summons, a complete and accurate financial statement showing, insofar as possible, the assets, liabilities and current income and expenses of both parties and children involved in the case. The form of the financial statement which each party must complete is dependent upon his or her income. Except as otherwise ordered by the court, a party whose income equal or exceeds $75,000.00 must complete the long form financial statement. A party whose income is less than $75,000.00 must complete the short form financial statement.
- (b) In the event a hearing on a motion for temporary orders, or a pretrial conference is scheduled by either party prior to the expiration of the 45 day period, financial statements by both parties shall be filed with the court and exchanged between the parties no later than two (2) business days prior to the hearing or the conference without the necessity of a request for such statements.
- (c) The form of the financial statement shall be determined from time to time by the probate judges of the Commonwealth. The judges of the probate courts may require from time to time during the pendency of a separate support or divorce action, or in any action involving a financial order, a new financial statement containing current information as to the assets, liabilities, current income and expenses of the parties and any children involved in the litigation.
- (d) The financial statement or new financial statement, as the case may be, shall be impounded or kept separate from other papers in the case and shall not be available for public inspection, but shall be available to the court, the attorneys (whose appearances are entered in the case), the parties to the case, the registers, assistant registers, members of the Probation Department of the probate courts and to employees of the Massachusetts Department of Revenue, where necessary.
- (e) All financial statements shall be signed by the party filing the same and shall be subject to the penalties of perjury.
- (f) Either party in a contested matter may request the other party, upon ten (10) days' notice, in the form of a separate request titled "Request for a Financial Statement" to furnish a signed, current financial statement to the court with a copy of the financial statement to the requesting party. No further request may be made within ninety (90) days of a prior request except by order of the court.
- (g) All sanctions available to a party under Rule 37 of the Massachusetts Rules of Domestic Relations Procedure and any other sanction that the court may deem appropriate shall be available to compel compliance with this rule and such sanctions shall be ordered by the court except for good cause shown.

Amended November 16, 1979, effective December 17, 1979; October 10, 1997, effective December 1, 1997.
